

The Minor in Sexuality Studies

The interdisciplinary minor in Sexuality Studies offers students the unique opportunity to study human-made aspects of sexual identities, desires, and practices, which differ across cultures and historical moments, and are not reducible to biology or anatomy. The minor in Sexuality Studies core and elective courses have sexuality at their center. Additional courses invite students to integrate their study of sexuality with issues of gender; race and ethnicity; class; politics and activism; literature and popular culture; law; and other domains.

The minor requires 5 classes, a total of 18-20 units.

One Core Course: Women and Gender Studies 170...(4 units)

Two Elective courses from Field A: Anthropology 139BN, English 186, Epidemiology and Preventative Medicine 163, History 184, Human Development 12, Psychology 158, Science and Society 15, Women and Gender Studies 70....(7-8 units)

Two courses from Field B (below) or seminars/individual study by petition to achieve a total of 18-20 units...(7-8 units)
